Ladies Tucked Costume, Consisting of Ladies' Fancy Waist, No. 939, and Ladies' Seven-Gored Tucked Skirt, No. 919-Parsifal blue pongee is used for this attractive toilet, with black braid and buttons for trimming. The girdle and cravat are of black liberty satin.

The waist is made over a glove-fitted, featherbound lining that closes in the center front. Two tucks in the back extend from neck to belt. The back is smooth across the shoulders and blouses at the waist.

Tucks in the front are stitched down a short distance in yoke effect and provide waist.

Tuchs in the front are stitched down a short distance in yoke effect and provide becoming fullness over the bust that blouses well at the girdle. The front is trimmed with braid to form a V-shaped plastron and fastens in slightly double-breasted style.

A plain collar completes the neck and is ornamented with a smart cravat that has long ends, which pass through sashes in the front and reach below the waist. A pattern is provided for the draped girdle. Tucks in the sleeves form a cap below which the pengee falls in soft folds to the wrist, where the fullness is gathered and arranged on flaring cuffs. Tiny caps are included in the arm's eye with the sleeves and extend over them, giving a fashionable breadth to the shoulders. The lace in the sleeves is dyed to match the pongee. Narrow black braid on the sleeves, plastron and caps is fastened with tiny crochet buttons.

Seven gores in the skirt are fitted smoothly around the waist and hips without darts. The closing is made invisible at the center back under two inverted plaits that are flatly pressed to present a perfectly plain appearance.

Three tucks at the front or straight edge of each side and back gore are stitched down about two-thirds of their length and flare smartly below the point where the stitching ceases. They retain their plaited folds to the hem and provide additional sweep to the skirt. The tucks are narrow at the belt and increase in with toward the lower edge. The skirt touches in front and has a graceful dip at the back.

Costumes in this mode are made of satin taffeta, foulard, voile, etamine, challle, veiling or mercerized wash fabrics, with lear and head or chiffen in the second of the second or chiffen in the second or chiffen in the second of the second or chiffen in the second of the second or chiffen in the second of the in taffeta, foulard, voile, etamine, challe, veiling or mercerized wash fabrics, with lace, braid, ribbon, applique or chiffon
